

Year Five

The topic for this half term is To The Stars. The following table explains a choice of projects that can be carried out at home. In addition to house points, you will receive one homework stamp for each piece of project homework carried out.

1 house point	2 house points	3 house points
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>★ Draw a detailed picture of one of the planets.</li> <li>★ Label a picture of the solar system with the names of the planets.</li> <li>★ List ten questions you would like to ask an astronaut.</li> <li>★ Write a rhyme to help remember the order of the planets (e.g. Mercury's Volcanoes Erupt Mulberry Jam Sandwiches Until Noon).</li> <li>★ Find and copy a poem about space in your neatest handwriting - remember to join correctly.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>★ Research and record ten facts about the universe.</li> <li>★ Write your own poem about space.</li> <li>★ Create a factual poster about one of the planets.</li> <li>★ Use craft materials to make a decorative star.</li> <li>★ Compare two planets by describing the similarities and differences between them.</li> <li>★ Draw a diagram showing the phases of the moon by looking at the moon each night.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>★ Create a 3D model of the solar system.</li> <li>★ Describe the life cycle of a star in detail.</li> <li>★ Write a short story about space exploration.</li> <li>★ Create a comic strip about a character: the man in the moon.</li> <li>★ Use a range of materials to create a starry picture.</li> <li>★ Write a quiz about space for other children to answer (consider including multiple choice answers).</li> </ul>