

Poles Apart

The topic for this half term is Poles Apart.

The following table explains a choice of projects that can be carried out at home.

1 house / team point	2 house / team points	3 house / team points
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ★ List ten facts about the Polar Regions. ★ List the differences between the North Pole and the South Pole. ★ Name and draw animals from the Polar regions. ★ Sketch a wintery scene. ★ List the equipment you would need for an expedition to the South Pole. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ★ Design clothing to be worn in the Polar regions. ★ Plan an expedition to the South Pole. ★ Label a polar expedition on a map. ★ Create a poster to show similarities and differences between the North Pole and South Pole. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ★ Construct a 3D frozen landscape. ★ Research a polar expedition and present your findings. (e.g. Prince Harry's expeditions) ★ Construct an igloo. Either bring in the constructed igloo or take a photograph if it's too fragile to move. ★ Write a short story about a Polar expedition.